Wiki Contributor of the Month

From Forum Nokia Wiki

Forum Nokia honors one member every month for their outstanding contribution to our community's Wiki. The contributor of the month is awarded a new S60 device. The honor is given to people that have contributed outstanding work for the month in number of articles and quality of the articles. If you have recently substantially updated an article please contact Nokia Ron to be sure your article is judged for the month.

The following is a list of those who performed well in the past:
